Dying is a serious and complicated business. Circumstances surrounding the sudden death of the author's husband inspired her to recruit professionals and create a 256-page workbook to use as a guided tour for end-of-life planning. It is an all-in-one-place to map out wishes and list legal and financial affairs. The comprehensive step-by-step checklists (eight pages) and forms (over 60) will eliminate confusion, ease the transition, avoid ramifications and protect your survivors from injustices & victimization that often occurs upon the death of a loved one. Charlotte invites you to hold her hand as she navigates you through this maze
